Welcome

Objectives

- Describe the changing nature of healthcare response to 21st century disasters
- Understand practices to increase community collaborations with voluntary organizations and improve volunteer management during emergencies
- Describe NY State Department of Health's expectation for ambulatory health centers before, during and after emergencies
- Discuss real-life experiences of a community health center about responding to a natural disaster in Puerto Rico
- Provide information on the key changes contained in the new version of the National Incident Management System (NIMS)

NYC DOHMH - OEPR

- The NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH) Office of Emergency Preparedness and Response (OEPR) works to prevent, protect against, respond to, and increase NYC's ability to recover from the public health impacts of emergencies.
- DOHMH does this through partnerships with various city, state and federal agencies, healthcare facilities, and community leaders and organizations to better protect and meet the needs of NYC citizens

About PCEPN

- Community Health Care Association of New York State (CHCANYS), New York's primary care association, leads a coalition of primary care providers within New York City (NYC) in close partnership with NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH). This initiative is Primary Care Emergency Preparedness Network or PCEPN for short.
- We offer resources, trainings, and technical assistance to improve primary care centers' ability to plan and prepare for, respond to and recover from emergencies and disasters.

The screenshot shows the PCEPN website homepage. At the top is the PCEPN logo and a Google Custom Search bar. Below the logo is a navigation menu with links: About, News, Resources, Events, Membership, and Contact. The main content area features a large image of a male doctor and a female nurse looking at a tablet. To the right of the image is a green button that says "REGISTRATION OPEN!!!". Below the button, the text reads "PCEPN 4th Annual Emergency Preparedness Seminar". At the bottom of the main content area, a blue bar contains the text "BARUCH COLLEGE MARCH 15, 2018". Below this bar, the footer text reads "INFO@PCEPN.ORG | WWW.PCEPN.ORG | 914-22-PCEPN".
